- Abundance categories (Cat.): C = common, R = rare, V = very rare, P = present - to fill if data are deficient (DD) or in addition to population size information
- Data quality: G = 'Good' (e.g. based on surveys); M = 'Moderate' (e.g. based on partial data with some extrapolation); P = 'Poor' (e.g. rough estimation); VP = 'Very poor' (use this category only, if not even a rough estimation of the population size can be made, in this case the fields for population size can remain empty, but the field "Abundance categories" has to be filled in)

Other Site Characteristics

Piccola area pianeggiante posta in prossimità dell'abitato di Norcia, dove si conserva l'unico esempio di prati marcati dell'Appennino centrale e meridionale. Si tratta di un'area ricca di risorgive e solcata da un reticolo di canali, che viene periodicamente inondata, secondo pratiche che risalgono al medioevo, per consentire la produzione di una maggiore quantità di fieno. La vegetazione è data, all'interno dei canali, da cenosi idrofite dello Sparganio-Glycerion fluitantis (3260) e sui prati marcati da formazioni umide riferibili al Trifolio-Hordeetalia. Caratteristici sono poi i filari di Populus nigra var. italica che delimitano le sponde del Fiume Sordo.

4.2 Quality and importance

I prati marcati di Norcia, estesi per pochi ettari nei dintorni della città, sono l'unico esempio appenninico di tale ambiente. Essi caratterizzano un ambito paesaggisticamente unico e di grande valore naturale oltre che storico (le pratiche colturali risalgono al tardo medioevo). Particolare significato geobotanico rivestono poi le fitocenosi idrofite del Fiume Sordo che alimenta tali ambienti. Tra le specie floristiche sono state indicate Caltha palustris, Iris pseudacorus, Lemna gibba, Lemna trisulca e Salix cinerea, rare a livello regionale. Tra la fauna è stato indicato anche il tricottero Adicella cremisa (specie stenotopa dei prati marcati), Cettia cetti (specie stenotopa legata alla vegetazione ripariale e Neomys fodiens (altro elemento stenotopo molto raro).
