

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape. A red line is drawn on the ground, starting from a road on the left, extending horizontally, and then turning slightly to the right. The area is a mix of dark green forest and brownish, cleared land. A small building with a blue roof is visible near the end of the red line. A winding road or path runs horizontally across the middle of the image, and a river or stream is visible in the bottom left corner.

A wide, light-colored gravel or sand road winding through a rural landscape. On the left, there are trees and a low stone wall. In the background, a small building with a red roof is visible among green hills under a clear blue sky.

A wide, light-colored gravel or dirt road winding through a lush, green landscape. The road is bordered by a low stone wall on the left and a grassy slope on the right. Trees line the background, and the road curves gently into the distance.
